

I am currently protected by the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. I now enjoy my time at home and no longer dread answering the telephone (well over 50% of calls were solicitors). While I believe a national "no call" list would be advantageous, I don't advocate it if it weakens Indiana's current law. Please let me retain my peace!